

International organisations and networks linked to the SDGs

Below is a list of additional notable international organisations and networks in which CUT is a member and that are directly linked to the SDGs.

- ASPHER (Association of Schools of Public Health in the European Union) – Enhancing health data for SDG 3 (Good Health and Well-being).
- APHEA (Agency for Public Health Education Accreditation) – Advancing public health metrics for SDG 3.
- US Green Building Council – Promoting sustainable building practices relevant to SDG 11 (Sustainable Cities and Communities) and SDG 13 (Climate Action).
- SDSN (Sustainable Development Solutions Network)- Supporting sustainability initiatives linked to all SDGs.
- European University Association (EUA) – Advocating higher education policies aligned with SDG 4.
- International Association of Universities (IAU) – Fostering education collaborations contributing to SDG 4 and SDG 17 (Partnerships for the Goals).
- UNIMED (Mediterranean Universities Union) – Focusing on sustainability and academic exchanges related to SDGs 4, 13, and 17.
- IWA (International Water Association) – Facilitating water research impacting SDG 6 (Clean Water and Sanitation).
- ISES (International Solar Energy Society) – Advancing renewable energy initiatives for SDG 7 (Affordable and Clean Energy) and SDG 13.
- Water Europe – Supporting SDG 6 through water management innovations.
- AWWA (American Water Works Association) – Ensuring water quality data for SDG 6.